Description

French Louis XV chest of drawers in precious exotic wood with red French marble top. The under-top band features two large drawers that can be pulled out via finely chiselled gilt bronze handles. The second and third drawers are unique and can always be pulled out using handles. The two corners are embellished with bronze elements depicting female busts and end with cabriolet shoes. Laterally it has a curvilinear movement embellished by the implementation of the herringbone wood. The base is mixtilinear and is adorned with a central gilt bronze medallion. The bottoms of the drawers are all in solid walnut and the original locks of the time. General conditions: Good condition. Provenance: France 18th century. Measurements: 130X64 H83cm. Document: Certificate of Authenticity.
