Moroccan Knife Called Mouss Or Sekkin - Morocco, 19th Century

260 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Moroccan knife called mouss or sekkin - Morocco, 19th century In Morocco, this type of knife is called "mouss", which simply means knife. We also encounter the term "sekkin", which also means knife in the dialect of the Fez region. Scabbard and handle covered with brass sheets worked in repoussé. Beautiful single-edged blade. Length 41.5cm Length without scabbard 39cm Blade length 26cm Total weight 225gr Weight without scabbard 154gr

Dealer

Galerie Mathieu

Antiquités, armes et art extra-Européens

Châteauneuf-sur-Charente 16120