Description

Large oil on canvas measuring 81cm x 100cm signed lower left Valadié titled and countersigned on the back Jean Baptiste Valadié was born in 1933 is a painter, engraver, sculptor, draftsman, illustrator He began at the Cours Charpentier in Montparnasse, and studied applied arts for four years to graduate in 1955. Armed with his pencil, the draftsman will never stop going to Place du Tertre to sketch. His works offer the sweetness of a dream or a "Venetian dream", as expressed in the title of one of his lithographs. Grace hangs under his pencil stroke and lifts the plastic harmony. He presented his first exhibition in Dakar (Senegal), and continued with an exhibition in Algiers during his military service in 1960. Exhibitions flourished in France (Paris, Cannes, Lyon) and internationally: South
