Description

These two pairs of consoles are elegant vintage-style furniture, inspired by the design of the 1950s-1970s. Here are some notable features:

1. Materials:
 - o The structure is made of stained wood uprights (mahogany) with gilded brass metal elements.
 - o The shelves are made of transparent glass and the back is mirrored, which creates an effect of depth and reflection, bringing more light to the space.
2. Style:
 - o These pieces of furniture are part of a classic and chic aesthetic, reminiscent of the Hollywood Regency or modernized Art Deco style.
 - o The combination of wood, brass and glass is typical of high-end creations from the mid-20th century.
3. Use:
 - o They can be used as side consoles, small bookcases or supports for decorative objects.
 - o Their light and airy design makes them easy to
