Description

CONTEMPORARY ART, 21th ctySuperb set of 3 abstract drawings by the contemporary artist Nicolas MAFFRE, all 3 signed and dated 2012 on 3 superimposed lines in a stylized cartouche at right bottom: "M MA... FRRE... 2012 The artist first tore his thick sheets of paper (heavy weight) and then glued the pieces back together precisely before starting his drawings. Greasy chalk techniqueAbstract designs consist of superimposition of multiple geometric shapes: in particular, the many round shapes in first ground sometimes cover other geometric shapes as if these bubbles were passing in front of them, like bubbles in carbonated water or planets or celestial bodies in the cosmos.The artist has also subtly worked on the play of shadows and color contrasts in order to create a strong multi-dimensionality. The graphic construction on a plain light background gives the impression of extreme lightness, like bubbles of sparkling water or planets suspended in a cosmos. The very progressive colour flats are reminiscent of rich gradations of Mark ROTHKO's American Abstract Expressionist painting. Dimensions 400*300 mm for the drawings, 504*404 mm for each frame Simple and sober frames under glass with craft paper threads, on a background of solid colored sheets. This made it possible to perfectly protect the works and will allow you to freely choose the desired "over-frame", or not ! The artist exhibits specially his works in several art galleries in France, in particular in Paris, Lyon and Strasbourg
