Description

Lucien POTRONAT (1889-1973) "Landscape of the French Riviera" Oil on canvas Signed lower right Frame dimensions: Height: 58 cm Width: 67 cm Painting dimensions: Height: 46 cm Width: 55 cm Lucien Potronat, born in Paris on October 5, 1899 and died in Saint-Raphaël on November 3, 1973, was a French painter and watercolorist. At the end of the First World War, he was one of the exhibitors at the Paris Salon, where he sometimes used the pseudonym Jacques Warner. At the end of the 1930s, he moved to the French Riviera where he remained until the end of his life. Fascinated by the light and warmth of the region, Lucien Potronat captured this in his paintings by depicting the local coastline with whitewashed villas covered in bougainvillea, near the characteristic blue of the Mediterranean under
