Description

Crafted in the 17th century, this Spanish console table exemplifies the timeless elegance of waxed walnut. The wood's rich, warm hues highlight its fine grain, giving the piece depth and character. Measuring 127 cm long, 80 cm high, and just 41 cm deep, its slender proportions make it an ideal addition to both spacious and more compact interiors. Its shallow depth allows it to sit elegantly against a wall or in a hallway without overwhelming the space. Emblematic of traditional Spanish craftsmanship, this table is adorned with wrought iron hardware that gives it an authentic, rustic charm. These metal accents contrast harmoniously with the smooth surface of the walnut, reinforcing its historical appeal. The lyre-shaped legs further emphasize the table's craftsmanship, combining strength and
