Description

According to Riesener: Muséal Louis XVI style secretary in precious wood marquetry circa 1890-1900. This elegantly shaped piece of furniture is decorated all around with a leafy trellis inlay. It is topped with a recessed marble top with an openwork gilt brass gallery and it opens on the front with a flap decorated with a large ribboned gilt bronze medallion representing an allegory of Water, with putti playing with a Dolphin, in the manner of Clodion. The interior theater is refined with a leather writing surface. The canted uprights are topped with gilt bronze mounts, tied with ribbons. The whole rests on feet decorated with bronze rosettes separated by an overhanging apron with a bronze outline. The frame bears a hot-stamped number.
