Description

Lacquered corner cabinet with floral and bird decoration - Asia, 20th century
This charming lacquered wood corner cabinet, probably of Asian origin, dates from the 20th century. It seduces with its curved shape, its hand-painted decoration representing flowers, birds and butterflies, as well as its elegant golden lines that emphasize the contours. The two doors open onto fan-shaped shelves, providing a beautiful storage space while maintaining a refined decorative appearance. The top is also adorned with a delicate floral decoration. A poetic and decorative piece, perfect for bringing a touch of exoticism to a classic or eclectic interior.
