

Pair Of Large Plates With Famille Verte Enamels - China, 18th Century, Kangxi Period

800 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 25,2cm

Description

A pair of large porcelain plates decorated in Famille Verte and Imari enamels, with Fenghuang and butterflies around the edges. The central decoration depicts a flowering vase. There are also enamels from the Imari palette. The reverse is decorated with fish and shellfish in cartouches on a lattice background. China 18th century Kangxi period (1661-1722) Diameter: 25.2cm One has a thin star-shaped crack in the centre and a small chip at the heel, the other has a chip or small chip at the edge. Further information and photos on request.

Dealer

Galerie Drake

Chinese Porcelain & Chinese Works of Art

Mobile : 0689483023

Paris 75011