Description

Sorry, No export airmail for this. On a large, thick walnut backslash, with a carved console, 110cm x 41cm (8kg), a copper fountain with hemmed edges, composed of 3 pieces: a baluster body entirely decorated on front with a very impressive dragon, below, a pivoting bronze tap, and its cover, embossed and with bronze fretel. Below, a large basin on a stand, decorated with an even more formidable dragon. A popular masterpiece of copperware. Origin: Cévennes Gardoises. Condition: discovery, summarily polished, wear, dents, small tin welds, small cracks. I am not sure that it can be put into water as it is: but: superb as a decoration.
