High corner cupboard in black lacquered wood with a lively landscape and flower decoration in the Asian style. Late 19th or early 20th century. Surmounted by a high pediment (restoration). Opens to a door (lock present but no key, damaged keyhole but not very visible). The interior lined with carved wooden hooks. A large hook in the corner of the upper shelf allows a wall hanging (because the weight of the door is greater than the rest of the furniture). Traces of normal wear and small lacquer chips but very good general condition. Maximum dimensions: H 231 x 92 x 45 cm
