Description

Western Tibet / Indian border, 17th century A rare small antique Tibetan painted wooden chest with incredible patina and intricate panels of floral scenes. Reds, greens and yellows. The polychromy is worn, but it is in its original condition. With wrought iron locks and a magnificent Naga head handle. This small chest opens twice: the lid reveals the red painted interior. Once the lid is closed, it opens from the middle (side bands). See photos for details. Some chips to the inside edge, but overall in good condition. Dimensions: 41.5 x 21.5 x 28 cm
Weight: approximately 5 kg
