Description

Kutaya rug in wool on wool hand knotted, originating from eastern Turkey, eastern Anatolia, from the second half of the 20th century around 1970 .In perfect condition, this piece measures 150 cm wide by 225 cm long. The patterns and colors of Kutaya are very close to Yürüks rugs, (an Anatolian ethnic group). The patterns of the former are more linear and the borders more simplified, the hooks around the diamonds disappear, however their decorations are fully similar to Caucasian rugs. Kutaya are more often of an elongated format such as : 80/100 x 200/220----- 130/150 x 225/250-----120/130 cm x 300/320 cm. Knotted in wool on wool, we owe this type of rug to the work of nomadic tribes and semi-nomadic that are the kutayas. They are adept at totally geometric stylistic designs and the
