

Art Deco Ring In White Gold And Diamonds Circa 1930

600 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Lovely little antique ring in 18-carat white gold with a square setting Art Deco period circa 1930. It is centered with a main old-cut diamond of approximately 0.10 carats in an openwork bezel setting and supported by six diamond roses, all with a stepped effect. A jewel of fine French quality made by a Master goldsmith (hallmark). The settings are finely beaded and the central openwork bezel setting which holds the main diamond is slightly raised for a beautiful volume effect. Hallmark: eagle's head (18-carat gold) and dog's head (platinum) + Master goldsmith hallmark. Dimensions: Ring head and shoulder: 15 mm Ring head alone: 7.5 mm Size: 51 (re-sizing possible) Gross weight: approximately 1.65 g Good condition. All our jewelry is antique and has been worn. The stones may therefore
