

Crucifix

11 000 EUR

Signature : Giovanni Battista Cremonini

Period : 16th century

Condition : Très bon état

Length : cm 42

Width : cm 25.8

Description

Giovanni Battista Cremonini - Cento (Ferrara)
1550 ca. - Bologna 1610 Crucifix 16th century
Oil on panel; cm 42 x 25.8 This work is accompanied by an expertise by Prof.ssa Francesca Parrilla, curator of the Vatican Museums in Rome. In the expertise, available upon request, the following masters are named several times, precisely: - Michelangelo, 6 times; - Marcello Venusti, 3 times; - Giulio Romano (and his workshop), twice; - Sebastiano del Piombo, once; - Giotto, once. This just to give an idea of the "cultural area of provenance" of such a work of art. And the Museum's references in the same know-how to other works with common characteristics are: -Ashmolean, Oxford - British Museum, London - Musée de Grenoble; - Los Angeles County Museum of Art (Lacma),

Dealer

Ancient Treasures Ltd

Italian Renaissance Art / Instagram: @ancient.treasures

Tel : +44 7931 596221

19-20 Bourne Court, Southend Road

Woodford Green IG8 8HD

European Art. It is precisely at the Lacma Museum in Los Angeles that we can find a work very similar to ours, attributed by the museum to Giovanni Battista Cremonini.

<https://collections.lacma.org/node/600319> The panel is currently in our warehouse in England.

Please contact us to discuss the terms and conditions of sale. Thank you and goodbye.

Ancient Treasures Ltd.