Description

Beautiful and lively watercolor watercolor by H. Gonin from 1878 dedicated to his friend Miret, virtuoso the term is not overused for this charming watercolor presented in a gilded wooden baguette boudin frame with margin. Remarkable scene of storm on a jetty, a steamer in combat against wind and waves, fishermen woman with avenot and child on the beach and fisherman busy on the boat, realistic this big breaking wave, and this windy climate enhanced with white touches of zinc white and the flight of seagulls playing with this damn wind. A beautiful atmosphere for this watercolor, of remarkable power, well executed and in good condition, clean and very decorative... Price studied for this beautiful watercolor very mastered.. By Henri Gonin marine painter.
