Description

Finely carved and upholstered in natural linen. Magnificent early 19th century Anglo-Indian sofa, made circa 1830 from solid ebony. The piece displays exquisite craftsmanship, with finely turned details throughout the frame, typical of high-quality Anglo-Indian furniture of the period. Recently reupholstered in a light natural linen, it provides a beautiful contrast to the dark richness of the wood. The sofa is in very good condition throughout and makes a striking decorative piece in both classical and eclectic interiors. Dimensions: 250 x 77 x 72 cm
