Seated Hermes - Patinated Bronze, Grand Tour, Late 19th Century

448 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Elegant patinated bronze sculpture of a seated Hermes, inspired by the original found in the Villa of the Papyri at Herculaneum in 1758. This piece is a fine example of late 19th-century Grand Tour art, a period when wealthy European travelers collected classically inspired works as souvenirs of their travels. The sculpture stands on a marble and wood base, enhancing its classical presence and display appeal. Origin: Grand Tour, late 19th century Material: Patinated bronze Base: Marble and wood Dimensions: 15 x 8 x 10 cm Condition: Very good, with a beautiful patina and slight signs of age A refined and collectible piece for lovers of classical antiquity and neoclassical decorative arts.
