Description

Elegant painting by Pierre Sudré (1910-1976) depicting an intimate scene around a basket placed on a table. In the tradition of the great painters of silence, Sudré explores here the play of shadow and light, muted textures and calm balances between objects. The composition testifies to a subtle, almost meditative gaze, focused on the simple things of everyday life. The brushstroke is mastered, the palette soft and restrained, evoking a moment suspended outside of time. Dimensions without frame: 65x50cm
