Description

Gilt Wood Carved Mirror with Openwork Pediment and Musical Attributes, Louis XVI Period
This rectangular trumeau mirror, crafted from carved and gilded wood, stands out with its refined decoration of pearls, ribbons, and trimmings. Topped with an openwork pediment adorned with musical instruments and oak leaves, it embodies the elegance of the Louis XVI period. A French work from the Louis XVI era, circa 1775-1785, this mirror will add a touch of authenticity to your interior. Dimensions: Height: 59.1 inches. Width: 32.7 inches. In very good condition, with minor touch-ups to the gilding. Presented in its original patinated gold leaf.
