Description

This mid-20th-century French Riviera bamboo rattan side table or coffee table features a triangular bamboo frame with hand-woven rattan. The table showcases a lovely color and patina on the triangular top, contributing to its charm. The design is both elegant and exceptional, making it a perfect addition to any living space.

Manufactured in the South of France during the 1960s, this table boasts beautiful details and perfect proportions, ensuring both style and durability. It is robust and in very good condition, with only normal minor wear to the wrapped edges of the rattan, which does not compromise the overall structure.
