Description

Absolutely! Here is the English translation of the French description: This exceptional vase is a unique creation by the renowned French glass artist, Jean-Claude Novaro. Crafted using the traditional technique of blown glass, it presents a harmonious ovoid form, the upper section of which is distinguished by four organic and delicately shaped outgrowths, seamlessly merging with the vase's structure. The piece is notable for its sophisticated abstract decoration. The upper part displays a powdery pink hue, transitioning into a background of subtly mottled milky white and blue. The surface is enriched with iridescent glass inlays exhibiting shifting metallic reflections, oscillating between shades of emerald green, warm bronze, and luminous gold. These organic and fluid motifs appear to fuse with the
