Description

Beautiful round table in Cuban mahogany. It rests on 6 Jacob legs with bronze shoes and finished with small casters. It has 4 mahogany extensions allowing it to reach a total length of 303 cm. With a folded flap it can form a console. Its top, which has two slight cracks from the beginning, was formerly restored, making them very discreet. (See photos). Its original oak slides work perfectly well and allow it to be opened by a single person. Very stable base and harmonious Jacobean feet.
