

Christofle Cutlery With The Coat Of Arms Of The House Of Emperor Napoleon III.

4 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Silver metal

Length : longueur fourchette de 21 cm x longueur cuillère de 21,5 cm.

Description

Christofle cutlery

set consisting of a table spoon and fork with violin fillet in silver-plated metal.

Coat of arms

of the House of Emperor Napoleon III

(1808/1873).Marks: "Christofle", "61"

master goldsmith's hallmark.

Note: Charles Christofle (1805-1863), a jeweler, founded the company in 1830 and registered his hallmark in 1832.

In 1851,

Emperor Napoleon III commissioned Christofle to produce official Empire dinner services.

Its titles of King's Goldsmith and Emperor's Supplier enabled the company, which had become

Dealer

Galerie DELALANDE

Marine & Sciences, Tobacco & Opium objects, Canes, Curiosa

Tel : 00 33 1 42 60 19 35

Mobile : 00 33 6 60 90 21 59

35 rue de Lille

Paris 75007

famous, to be commissioned by foreign sovereigns such as the Emperor of Mexico and the Tsar of Russia.

Dimensions: length fork of 21 cm x length knife of 21 cm.

France made circa 1852 (Second Empire).