

PROANTIC

LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Woman Combing Her Hair - Bronze By Jorge Borrás - 2/8

1 800 EUR

Signature : Jorge Borrás

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Bronze

Width : 25

Height : 27

Depth : 25

Description

Immerse yourself in the intimacy of a suspended moment with this captivating bronze sculpture by Spanish artist Jorge Borrás, entitled "La Femme se Coiffant." Cast in 1992 by the prestigious Fonderie de la Plaine, this rare piece, numbered 2 out of a limited edition of only 8, is a true ode to beauty and feminine grace. The work captures a kneeling woman, absorbed in the delicate act of styling her long hair. The bronze is enhanced by a subtle veil of antique green that blends with the warm tones of the brown bronze, creating a patina of unique depth and character. The light glides over the sensual curves of the body, highlighting the finesse of the modeling and the anatomical precision. We admire the softness of the shoulders, the elegant line of the back, and the way the hands engage with touching delicacy in

Dealer

Michael Delaby Antiquités

Généraliste

Mobile : 0689606010

2 avenue des coteaux

Criel-sur-Mer 76910

the hair. The face, subtly inclined, invites contemplation and imagination. We can sense an expression of inner calm, a pause in the tumult of the world. Height: 27 cm Depth: 25 cm Width: 25 cm Very beautiful painting Very good general condition Jorge Borrás (born in 1952 in Benicarló, Spain) is a renowned sculptor, painter and engraver. Trained at the Royal Catalan Academy of Fine Arts of Sant Jordi under masters such as Francisco Ribera Gómez, Josep Puigdemonts Barrellà and Luisa Granero Sierra, he developed an exceptional mastery of the human and animal figure in bronze. His talent and contribution to the arts were recognized by his appointment as a Knight of the National Order of Merit in France. His work, exhibited widely, demonstrates a profound artistic sensitivity and virtuoso technique.