NOVARO This vase is signed and dated 1997 JC NOVARO was passionate from a young age and his reputation slowly built up, first in Paris with the great success of the lamp that lit up at the same time. His workshop was in Biot where he worked on new techniques, notably the inclusion of gold and silver in his works. Then he opened a gallery in the lower part of his workshop. His greatest success came in 1987, when an exhibition at the Musée des Arts Décoratifs
