A Bust For Desperate Causes

185 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Gilt bronze

Width : 7cm

Height : 10,5 cm

Depth : 4 cm

Description

I admit that I don't know everything about the pantheon of Saints... I didn't know that some people used a saint to get out of difficult situations. They prayed to Saint Jude. Han Solo said: "May the force be with you...", but that's another story). I discovered the bust in spelter of a handsome bearded man, dressed in Roman style, wearing a medal on his chest and ostentatiously showing a medallion with the face of Christ.... And in the other hand, he holds a striking argument...a surprising contrast with the tranquility of the gaze. This bust in spelter is rare (mentioned as such on the web). It is written: Saint Jude at the front and the advocate of desperate causes at the back. An astonishing statuette that deserves to be cleaned, I am giving it away in the state in which it rested in a

Dealer

Complément d'objets

sciences, ethnical, naturalia, artificialia, didactical items, curiosities

Tel :

Mobile : 00 32 477 450 595

Wemmel 1780

forgotten cupboard in the sacristy.