Description

André-Charles Nauleau (1908-1986) was a French painter born in La Roche-sur-Yon. The painter produced highly spontaneous works. His painting is rooted in the land, and his works bear witness to a bygone past. This Vendée from the beginning of the century with its old farms that no longer exist, its wet marsh with windmills, tuna boats with sails, the footsteps of horses that echo on the passage of the Gois, the washerwomen washing the linen on the course of the Yon but also the Boquines wearing the traditional headdress. The work is in good general condition. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the work. For the condition, please detail the photos. Do not hesitate to zoom.
