Charming little Louis XV cabriolet seat from the 18th century in patinated and waxed beech. It rests on four arched legs, the two front ones being finished with a pretty acanthus leaf work. The seat belt is scalloped, the backrest is violin-shaped. A discreet flower work adorns the top of the backrest as well as the middle of the front crossbar of the seat. The upholstery is in very good condition and very comfortable. This one having been redone fairly recently. The old pink covering fabric is also in good condition, we note a tiny stain on the front of the seat (stain indicated by a red arrow on the last photo). The whole is decorated with a pale pink braid finish. Dimensions: backrest height 86 cm seat height 39 cm width 60 cm seat depth 46 cm total depth 56
