Description

Oil on canvas depicting a musical scene composed with elegance and balance. At the center of the composition, a young woman wearing a white and blue dress and a red hat with feathers is seated and playing the zither. She is surrounded by three young boys: one lifts a richly decorated curtain behind her, the second holds a recorder, and the third reads a score. All three seem attentive and absorbed by the musician's playing... Read more. Restored and relined canvas; period frame in carved and gilded wood with channels, decorated with painted tortoiseshell fillets. LEARN MORE
