

5-tier English Glass Sliding Panel Bookcase.

2 650 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Mahogany

Length : 106 cm

Width : 42 cm

Height : 173 cm

Description

English Sliding Glass Bookcase in Mahogany and Mahogany Veneer on Oak, Late 19th Century.

Elegant bookcase in mahogany and mahogany veneer, veneered on oak and dating from the end of the 19th century. It is still mounted with dovetails if you look closely at the top. England, a very fashionable piece of furniture in this country at this time and which has 5 levels of storage.

This large model is composed of a base with a low plinth and a molded cornice at the top. The 5 storage compartments close with sliding glass panels. A large bookcase with a lot of character, a piece of furniture a little atypical in France. The windows slide inside the furniture which is very original and thus allowing significant storage, the windows revealing knick-knacks and windows through transparency. It can therefore be used as

Dealer

Antoine Claeys - Maison du XVème
antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 06 85 53 27 42

24 grande Rue

Nogent l'Artaud 02 310

a bookcase or display case and is in very good condition with a beautiful patina, not too flashy waxed varnish finish. Some small restorations of use and maintenance without impact, one of the windows has been changed. This type of bookcase can now blend perfectly into an old interior with furniture of any style, even art deco or contemporary why not because its lines are timeless and allow for great storage. Dimensions: 173 cm high and 106 cm at its longest by 42 cm at its deepest. Each glass compartment measures 35 cm deep by 25 cm high. We deliver and ship all over the world, please contact us for a precise quote.