Description

Pair of three-light candelabras in chased and gilded bronze, signed F. Barbedienne, Paris. Elegant pair of three-light candelabras in finely chased and gilded bronze, Empire style. Each tapered shaft rests on a circular base decorated with water leaves and gadroons. It is topped with a bouquet of stylized flames from which three light arms formed of swans with outstretched wings escape, supporting sockets decorated with palmettes and foliage. The treatment of the volumes and the quality of execution testify to the expertise of the Barbedienne house... Read more. Condition: very good overall condition. Original gilding well preserved, slight signs of use consistent with age. LEARN MORE
