Description

Spectacular 18th century wall clock in a violin-shaped design and its console decorated with polychrome flowers on a brass background. It is adorned with rich Rocaille bronze ornamentation, combining symmetry and asymmetry, exuding an elegant dynamism in perfect balance. The white enamel dial is composed of twelve enameled cartouches on a brass background with a central "sun king" decoration and foliate arabesques. It indicates the hours in Roman numerals with two hands, one of which is fleur-de-lis. The movement strikes the hours and half-hours and has been fully overhauled. Dimensions: H. 140 cm x W. 52
