Description

Wooden model of a three-masted sailing ship from the early 20th century. Very nice model of a three-masted sailing ship (frigate?) with one deck and eight gun ports on the port side and eight on the starboard side. It has 14 cannons in total. Aft castle and figurehead. It rests on a support. Very good general condition. The dimensions are those of the hull. The height is that with the masts and the support.
