PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Walnut And Brass Board, France, 18th Century

1 200 EUR

Signature : inconnu
Period : 18th century
Condition : Bon état
Material : Solid wood

Description

Rare full circle, called a planchette, with four pinnules, two of which are movable, mounted on a rotating alidade. The instrument is made of walnut and brass. The large brass circle is divided into two 360th degrees, then every degree and half-degree. An eccentric compass is equipped with an arrow-shaped needle. The ball joint is missing. Rare model of topographical circle. 24cm in diameter.

Dealer

Le Zograscope
Instruments scientifiques et médicaux anciens
Tel : +33688778366

5 rue de Condé
Paris 75006