Description

Light green shagreen scented perfume set with a red velvet interior. It contains four crystal bottles mounted in 925/000 silver. The small funnel is present and in good condition. All silver elements are stamped with an illegible hallmark. The emery caps are blocked and marked with small chips. One bottle still contains its perfume or a dark-colored "juice." The shagreen case is clean and in good condition apart from two slight losses on the front near the pusher, visible in the last photo. Late 18th century.
