Description

Pair of Lovely Children Italian Late 19th Century Terracotta Figures, probably fragments, part of a larger sculptural group, perhaps a fountain. One bust depicts a child with his arm raised and the other bust represents an intimidated little girl shielding her face with one hand. Both figures rest on an iron support, they are missing the lower part of the bust nevertheless these fragments of nineteenth-century terracotta sculptures have kept intact the characterful expression of the faces with strong romantic connotations. Maximum overall dimensions are given; exact measurements are for her height of figure cm. 41 (total with pedestal cm. 44) - width cm. 25 - depth cm. 30. For him height of figure cm. 34 (total with pedestal cm. 50.5) - width cm. 42 - depth cm. 18. The width of 67 cm is for the two
