Description

Gilt bronze wall clock signed by Toussaint Lenoir in Paris, for Toussaint Marie Lenoir, received master in 1730 and installed on the Place du Pont Saint-Michel in Paris. Rococo work from the mid-18th century, with a rich ornamentation of ivy leaves and various flowers. Model with sinuous lines, with a large acanthus leaf at the damping. A tendril completes the composition of the decoration. Openwork and plates covered with a red cloth to protect the movement from dust. Thread movement with star-shaped count wheel, balance adjustment at the front of the dial, hands mutilated during the Revolution. Clock serviced and cleaned by a professional watchmaker
