Description

Carved and Gilded Wooden Console with Rocaille Decor, Italy, Late 18th Century An elegant and decorative carved wooden console, openwork and gilded, resting on four cabriole legs united by a stretcher. Beautifully sculpted decor featuring openwork shells, flowers, foliate motifs, fruit clusters, and scrolls. Top made of veined grey-beige marble with a beveled edge. In the Rocaille style, this is a fine example of late 18th-century Italian craftsmanship. Dimensions: Height: 36.2 inches. Length: 48.8 inches. Depth: 21.1 inches. We are pleased to offer our console in good condition with some wear to its fine gilding, which adds to its charm. We note a small restoration at the back of the marble.
