Description

Charming little Transition Louis XV - Louis XVI cabriolet seat, from the 18th century. Our seat is made of waxed and patinated beech, it rests on four tapered legs, fluted and rudenté for the two front legs. The belt has deep molding work. The two front connecting dice are decorated with pretty daisy motifs. The backrest is violin-shaped. The upholstery is in very good condition and very comfortable, it has been redone recently. The covering fabric is light in color, it is in good condition, we note however a halo on the seat barely visible.
