Description

Spiritual gifts dedicated to ladies containing the office in Latin and French following the new breviary and Missal of Paris and Rome. At Théodore de Hansy in Paris, 1749. Antique book of very fine workmanship, interesting copy particularly well bound, binding in full red morocco decorated on the covers with beautiful gilt plates "à l'éventail", a handwritten note in pencil attributing it to the famous bookbinder Derôme. Spine with well-decorated compartments, wear and minor defects to the binding without loss, gilt edges. Very fine endpapers of dominoté paper. Inside with scattered foxing, the work is nicely illustrated with a beautiful engraved frontispiece and small vignettes including some medallion engravings for the months of the year.
