Description
-------------

Impressive pair of hand-painted Chinese porcelain vases. Decorated in reserve with courtesans sheltering under a parasol and surrounding a palanquin. The same decoration is reproduced on 2 sides of the 2 vases. polychromy highlighted by enamel relief parts, notably on the borders surrounding the painted scenes, as well as on the cherry blossoms. Variations of ultramarine and turquoise blues, oranges, browns and greens, which are complemented by the pink of a dress or that of a Peony. The neck is highlighted with a gold net. Great decorative effect for this pair of vases, rarely offered in these dimensions and in perfect condition.
