Description

A refined collection of 25 erotic drawings in pencil and watercolor, attributed to Alberto Vargas, the renowned Peruvian-American illustrator active in the 1930s, best known for his iconic pin-up girls. The artworks, created on card stock measuring approximately 9.5 x 14 cm, portray a bold and playful take on female sensuality, perfectly in tune with the libertine spirit of the interwar years. Some sheets include handwritten notes and dates referring to 1932. The lively style, confident lines, and provocative charm clearly reflect the influence of Vargas, the undisputed master of 20th-century erotic illustration. Subjects are often set in bourgeois interiors or salon scenes reminiscent of the Moulin Rouge, featuring flirtatious poses, playful scenarios, and dynamic sketches. A rare and
