Description

Elegant hexagonal game table dating back to the early 19th century. The top features a gently flared edge with an urn-shaped profile and is centered by a finely inlaid chessboard in walnut and beech. The central stem, tapering and gracefully shaped, ends in a carved pinecone motif from which three saber-shaped legs extend in a dynamic curve. A tasteful and refined piece, ideal as both a game table and a decorative element in a classic interior. Dimensions: max width 72 cm, depth 63 cm, height 74 cm.
