Description

We present this imposing desk lamp, an exceptional piece of decorative art from the late 19th century, from the Art Nouveau movement. Made of gilt bronze and mounted on a green marble base, it exudes timeless elegance and great nobility. The lamp is equipped with a molded pressed glass tulip from the house of Maynadier, a signature present, which testifies to the quality and refinement of the design of the time. Formerly a gas lamp, it has been meticulously electrified, and the electrical installation has been completely renewed, thus ensuring perfect functionality. This lamp is distinguished by its exceptional condition and rarity. It is a true Art Nouveau masterpiece and a must-have object for collectors or lovers of authentic art objects. Dimensions: Height: 50 cm
