Description

Rectangular gold box with rounded corners, hinged lid decorated with scrolls on an matte background. The lid is decorated with a central oval medallion framed by a guilloché pattern of parallel striations. The medallion presents a composition of hair. A fine frieze of interlacing and stylized fruits frames this composition. The base repeats the decoration of parallel striations and floral frieze. This snuffbox is characteristic of the so-called sentimental objects of the early 19th century. Work from the early 19th century, Restoration. Weight 118g. Title: bull 1819-1838 Guarantee: Sardanapalus 1819-1838. Master goldsmith LT for Louis Tronquoy.
Louis-François Tronquoy, son of Jean-François Tronquoy and Louise Ferdinande Morin, was born on May 20, 1798, at 639 rue des 4 vents,
