Description

This charming late 19th-century Sitzendorf porcelain figurine beautifully captures a courtship scene between a finely dressed couple. The male figure, adorned in a yellow coat and red trousers, extends his hand to the female figure, who is seated gracefully and holding a small book or gift. The attention to detail in their hand-painted attire and expressive faces reflects the fine craftsmanship of Sitzendorf porcelain from this period. The figurine is set on an elegant base decorated with vibrant floral accents, enhancing the romantic and playful atmosphere of the scene. The soft pastel hues and dynamic postures of the figures add to the figurine's charm, making it a delightful piece for any collector of antique porcelain. In excellent condition, this piece has no visible damage to the flowers or figures, and the
