Description

This exceptional set, composed of a large table and its matching bench, are characterful pieces originating from a former wine farm located on the banks of the Loire River. With a strong Spanish-inspired style, both pieces are crafted from solid oak, featuring robust joinery and an elegant design that reflect high-quality artisanal craftsmanship. The table (L 180 cm x W 90 cm x H 76 cm - 70.9 x 35.4 x 29.9 inches) stands out with its thick oak top resting on a beautifully shaped base with generous curves, reinforced by a solid wrought iron stretcher. This ironwork, both decorative and structural, displays graceful lines that add a touch of rustic elegance to the ensemble. The matching bench (L 180 cm x H 47.5 cm x D 31.5 cm - 70.9 x 18.7 x 12.4 inches) echoes the same aesthetic vocabulary: shaped legs, wrought iron stretcher, and a thick, comfortable seat. It pairs perfectly with the table but can also be used on its own in an entryway, a veranda, or at the foot of a bed. Both pieces have been sandblasted using an eco-friendly and gentle technique that preserves the wood's integrity while revealing the oak's natural tone and texture. The result is a light, matte finish that feels soft to the touch and highlights the noble character of the material. This set will bring warmth and authenticity to any interior, whether in a country home or a contemporary space seeking a style that is both traditional and refined. The table can also serve beautifully as a writing desk.
