Description

Large oval table with 6 legs and 2 flaps, mid-19th century. 6-legged table with its original slides that work very well. Oval top with 2 sides that fold down if desired. All in meshed oak (heart oak, very hard wood). The edge is highlighted with an ogee molding that refines the thickness of the top. Fluted turned legs, typically

Louis-Philippe-Restoration. Recent casters that work perfectly. The table has 4 extensions, each 48 cm wide, also in oak with the ogee edge like the table. Extensions made about thirty years ago of superb quality and in oak like the table, which is rare. They are fixed together with conical wooden cleats like the table. Solid and discreet closure. Length open with extensions: 319 cm. Table closed: length: 144.5 cm width: 125.2 cm. Table with folded sides: length: 144.5 cm width:
